

4.2 Library as a Learning Resource

4.2.1: Library is automated with digital facilities using Integrated Library Management System (ILMS), adequate subscriptions to e-resources and journals are made. The library is optimally used by the faculty and students

The library at MERI College has played a key role in supporting the academic pursuits of the students and faculty members. The library has the separate discussion section for its students. The institution has given all the students a separate time in the timetable for library for both students and faculty members. The institute is also committed to the research and development of knowledge of its faculties.

Library also has Institutional membership of Developing Library Network (DELNET), British Council Library (BCL) and American Library Center (ALC) Library is fully automated and computerized. All the books are bar coded and are available through access cards, Library facility for reservation of books through Internet is available. The institute has its in house developed library management software, which is extensively used in management of library like tracking books, tracking availability, details like publisher, author, issue etc.

The Library Resources:

1. E-journals: This is our vital source of scholastic research and information.
2. E-ShodhSindhu: This resource at the library provides an access to the vast academic content.
3. Shodhganga Membership: This facility helps in the exploration of the thesis and dissertation.
4. E-books: MERI Library also offers this digital platform of books for a convenient access.
5. Database: This is our structured and well organised collection of data.
6. Remote access to e-resources: The library insures an easy access for off Campus users.

The Expenditure Trend:

The institute is committed to its library with its consistent financial support. There has been a steady rise in the annual expenditure over the past five years on the library resources. Following is the brief summary of the expenditure trend:

1. For the year 2018-2019: Total expenditure for library was amounted to Rs. 3,21,614 with a significant investment in books and e-resources.
2. For the year 2019-2020: In this financial year, the institution allocated Rs. 3,48,875 to the library increasing its previous budget.
3. For the year 2020-2021: The institution continued with the growing of its expenditure to Rs. 4,02,856 for the library resources.
4. For the year 2021-2022: The institution maintained with its support for the library resources with an expenditure of Rs. 3,55,897.
